The Gary Byker Memorial Library of Hudsonville

Endowment Fund

The gift that keeps on giving...

Your contribution is a thoughtful and enduring gift which will continue to "give" for years to come...

The Gary Byker Memorial Library of Hudsonville Endowment Fund was established in 1998 for the promotion and development of the charitable and educational activities of the library.

Our Mission

If you care about the library and its efforts to create a more literate and informed community, consider making a gift to the Gary Byker Memorial Library Endowment fund.

It is also a great way to honor someone, or memorialize a loved one and, at the same time, bring enjoyment and the benefits of your thoughtfulness to the people of the community for years to come.

Donor Wall Art

Making a monetary contribution of $50 or more entitles your name (or your honoree/memorial name) to be included in our annual wall art that features endowment donors each year.

All contributions are eligible for a deduction on your taxes.

Contributions to the Gary Byker Memorial Library are generally eligible for a deduction for income tax purposes in the tax year in which the contributions are unconditionally made.

The extent to which the deduction will be allowed varies depending on several factors including who the donor is, what is being donated and the aggregate amount of charitable contributions by the donor during the tax year.

All donors should consult their own tax professional to ensure that the donor is receiving the maximum allowable tax benefit and that the donation is adequately recorded for tax purposes.

All checks and documents conveying property should be addressed to the Gary Byker Memorial Library.

Enclosed is my gift of

$50 $100 $500 $1000
