RESOLUTION #68

William H. Rutherford
Town Manager

WHEREAS, the Town Council of Dewey Beach, Delaware recognizes the ultimate goal of eliminating wastewater discharge into the Rehoboth Bay by the West Rehoboth Water and Sewer System; and

WHEREAS, while the Town Council understands the environmental advantages associated with achieving this goal, there are also prohibitive costs associated with such an effort; and

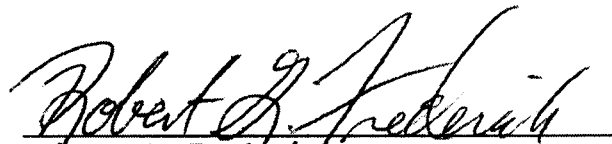

WHEREAS, it is recognized that a healthy Rehoboth Bay is a major tourist attraction that benefits visitors from around the world and is of national interest; and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the Town Council to indicate its support for such a project, but only under specific conditions.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED by the Mayor and Council of the Town of Dewey Beach, Delaware, that:

1. Funding for such a project come from a variety of funding sources, including the Federal Government and State and Local Governments.
2. DNREC supports the project.

ENACTED THIS 11th day of September, 1998.

Robert G. Frederick
Mayor

Attest:

William H. Rutherford
