

NOISES FROM THE CENTER

Vol. 4, No 4    What's happenin' at the Senior Center    April 2015

Article by

Brad Parker

April is National Volunteer Month. This makes me think how important volunteers are to our everyday life. Volunteers are an important part of all our lives so let's give that some thought during "Volunteer Month". Here in our small community, volunteers do so many things that may be taken for granted or even unnoticed. Just think for a minute. We all have peace of mind in knowing that if we have an emergency, a house fire or medical situation, that in a matter of minutes our local volunteers will be there to help. These people have to go through many hours of tough training yet they still volunteer.

Spring is here and with that comes Little League. Where would our little leaguers be without volunteers? The youth of our town are lucky to have so many activities and organizations to help them grow into responsible adults. Little League, EH Soccer Club, Park & Rec, Leos, Boy and Girl Scouts to name a few are organizations that could not exist without volunteers.

Don't we think our kids' lives would be missing something extraordinary without these volunteers?

Let's think some more! We have two Lions Clubs that work endlessly to give back to the community. We also have the East Haddam Historical Society, Moodus Sportsman Club,

Senior Center, 15 Great Hillwood Road
Moodus, CT 06469

Music on the River Concerts, Garden Club, food bank, two libraries, and the list goes on. Our schools encompass a universe of volunteers that we would not want to be without. Maybe instead of our town being known as the "Home of the Noises", it should be known as the "Home of the Volunteers".

Now, I want to talk about the Senior Center. The Senior Center is open to anyone who is 50 years old and older. During the year, we have many events that are open to all. Last year, we had over 18,000 "sign ins" at the center. Without our many volunteers, these events would not be possible. Just read the Senior Center Newsletter and you will see how busy it is. Volunteers make all the programs and services a reality. Some of the important services provided on a regular basis include Meals on Wheels delivery to homebound residents, tax preparation, Medicare counseling, computer training, and daily lunches. As you can see, these services can play a critical role in one's well-being. Now, don't think that this is all that volunteers do at the Center. There is so much more - leading the Tai Chi and Pilates classes, gardening, calling BINGO, and working on the monthly newsletter are just a few.

The Senior Center will recognize all of our volunteers during a reception on April 22nd at 1:00 pm. This is an annual event that gives us a chance to thank the many people who volunteer so much time during the year to make the Senior Center such a vibrant and friendly place. During this reception, one person will be awarded the East Haddam "Senior Citizen of the Year" Award.

So, let's just think for a minute. How different would our lives be without the volunteers? How different would our town be? How different would the Senior Center be? We can all easily see that without volunteers, life in our town would be vastly different. Many of the good things that we enjoy would not be here and those in need may not get the help that is needed. Life is certainly good in our town.

I now ask you to look around you. Take the time to thank the people you know that volunteer. They do make a difference and letting them know that their efforts have been noticed will be appreciated. Now, if you are a volunteer, let me give you a BIG THANK YOU. You sure do make life in East Haddam better.

Once again, this is small town USA and it doesn't get any better than this.

Discover I-Park of East Haddam

Next door to Devil's Hopyard State Park, there is a fantastically beautiful, 450-acre nature preserve called I-Park. I-Park is a renowned international arts and cultural epicenter where painters, sculptors, composers, writers, poets, filmmakers, landscape garden designers, and architects from all over the world gather to inspire and be inspired by each other and the land through its artists-in-residence program. What is an artists-in-residence program? It is a place where like-minded, like-spirited individuals from all creative disciplines come together to live and create art for a month at a time. At the end of each artists-in-residence session, I-Park invites the public to OPEN studio events to meet the artists in their studios, tour the facilities, and walk the beautiful trails. Join us for a presentation by one of the founders to hear about the inspiration and 'story' of how I-Park came to be and to learn about visiting and exploring I-Park to discover this hidden gem in East Haddam's backyard! Monday, April 13, 1:30 pm at the Center. Open to all. Please sign up because refreshments will be served.

The knitters...

Are at it again, turning out those hand-made items, for our annual, November craft fair. They need any kind, any color. If you have it and don't need it, please bring it to the Senior Center. Thank you!

Driver Safety

Time to put the snow tires and chains away for the season and re-learn how to drive in the good weather! AARP Driver Safety class at the Senior Center: Wednesday, April 29, from 12:30 to 4:30 pm. You must remain for the entire 4 hours to receive credit for this class. Drivers 60 and older completing the course may qualify for a discount on their auto insurance.

Memorial Garden

To honor Lee May, a resident of East Haddam, help build a Memorial Garden on the grounds of the Senior Center. Lee was an award winning journalist who gained acclaim as a correspondent, editor, and columnist for the LA Times and the Atlanta Journal-Constitution. In addition to the "serious issues" of his journalism career, Lee, who was a "Master Gardener" and wrote several books, was a featured writer for many syndicated home and garden publications, nationally renowned for his creative talents in the world of gardening. In an article he wrote for Gardening Life, Lee wrote: "All life's lessons grow in the garden: Birth, nurturing, love, heartbreak, success, joy and so many more." Lee was a heck of a nice guy who was an inspiration to everyone who knew him.

This garden will be sponsored by Harry Link & Family. If you wish to make a donation, you may do so at the Senior Center

Are You OK?

The EH Commission on Aging (COA), in collaboration with Craig Mansfield of E Haddam Emergency Management, is in the process of developing an out-reach program to check on those Seniors who are living alone & for those with health issues. Each day, a telephone call will be placed to the home to check that the occupant(s) are "OK". If there is no answer, the designated contact person will be notified. If the contact person does not answer, the Senior Center will be called; volunteers will make appropriate calls. The Fire and Police Dept. will be the "call" of last resort. The Commission feels this program will give Seniors & their families a feeling of security. Once the out-reach program has been finalized, a public meeting to explain the details of the program will be held at the Senior Center. If you are interested in learning more about this program, please call the Senior Center: 860-873-5034. Registration forms are available at the Center.

St. Pat's Celebration

What a celebration.... The green beer was flowing and the audience was dancing on the tables and hanging from the chandeliers!! Just kidding. But, it was a fun time. The Cabaret singer, Ashley Cruz, was most entertaining and so was the audience. A very interactive performance, Ashley had the group singing and dancing. She even shared the microphone! Ashley passed out maracas, boas, deely boppers, funky glasses, and hats. The crowd of 80 people really rocked the house!
