

Bath Historic Markers

Location: Waterfront Park

- Geology of the Kennebec River
- Fish in the Kennebec River
- History of the Kennebec River
- Early Development of Bath on the Kennebec River
- Bath Shipyards
- Kennebec River Ecosystem

Location: North End Boat Launch

- Shipbuilding during World War I
- Sewall Family Shipbuilding
- The Sewall Family
- The Patten Family

Location: Downtown – City Hall

- City Hall
- Downtown Architecture

Location: Downtown – Intersection of Front and Centre Streets

- Front and Centre Street Intersection
- Development of Downtown Bath

Location: Downtown – Intersection of Front and Broad Streets

- Death of Officer “Billy” Lawrence

Location: Downtown – Customs House

- Customs House
- William King

Location: Downtown – Train Station/Regional Information Center

- Carlton and Sagadahoc Bridges
- Bath Ferries

Location: South End – Plant Home

- Plant Home

Location: Intersection of High and Centre Streets

- Sagadahoc County Court House
- Old South Church
- Bath Meetinghouses and Erudition

Location: City Park

- “Spirit of the Sea” Sculpture
- Washington Street
- City Park

Location: Water Street Across from Municipal Parking Lot

- North Division of Bath Iron Works
- Thomas Worcester Hyde

Location: Winnegance at Intersection of High St and Bridge St

- Harnessing Water Power
- Activity on the Winnegance

Location: Intersection of Washington and Corliss Streets, overlooking Bath Iron Works

- Passages and Cargoes Made by Bath-Built Vessels
- Bath Iron Works
- Process of Building Wooden Vessels
- The Bath South End and Ships Gone By