Detectives seek public's help in solving the Jean Tuggy homicide

If you knew Jean Tuggy, or live in the village where she lived and died at the hands of a killer three years ago on January 20, you may be able to help Ferguson Township Police solve her murder. For the first time in the Ferguson Township Police Department's history, police have dedicated a cold case team to investigate three unsolved cases, including the homicide of Tuggy, a 60-year-old resident of Pine Grove Mills. Join us January 17 to express your hopes for Suburban Park

Tell us your impressions of Suburban Park, your expectations and your hopes for its future. Ferguson Township and its consultant, YSM Landscape Architects, invite you to help update the park's master plan. The Township is offering two opportunities for park visitors to participate in the planning process: public meetings and a 10-question survey. Learn more...

Open House: Ask your questions about updates to our Zoning and SALDO ordinances, zoning map, and more

Ferguson Township is performing a major update to both the Zoning and Subdivision and Land Development (SALDO) ordinances that Planning & Zoning staff expect will be adopted early this year. The Department of Planning & Zoning will host an open house for residents who have questions about changes to these ordinances as well as updates to the zoning map. Join us at 6 pm Thursday, February 21. Learn more...
