

THE POLICY TO OBTAIN A MARRIAGE OR CIVIL UNION LICENSE IN OCEAN CITY, NJ

WHEN SHOULD YOU APPLY FOR A MARRIAGE OR CIVIL UNION

- If the applicants are residents of New Jersey, the license can be obtained from the Registrar in the municipality in which either applicant resides. The license is valid in any municipality in the State of New Jersey.
- If the applicants are non-residents of New Jersey, and wish to be joined in ceremony in Ocean City, the applicants must apply in Ocean City.
- Once the application has been filed, there is a 72 hour waiting period before the ceremony can take place. The application is valid for up to 6 months and is retained in the Registrar Office. Keep in mind that if a ceremony is taking place on a Saturday or Sunday, you must apply by the previous Tuesday to allow for the 72 hour waiting period and since the Registrar office is not open on weekends, the license must be issued and picked up by Friday.

If for some reason, the 72 hour waiting period cannot be met, the applicants must appear before a Superior Court judge to have it waived and that signed waiver must be presented to the Registrar prior to the license being issued.
