WILD QUAIL

---

A Handbook for Members - 2014 Revision

---

Annual Meeting

---

Every year we hold one large annual meeting for the entire membership to attend. At this meeting, we talk about essential membership information. We normally hold this meeting in late October/early November.

Quail's Tale

Our newsletter, the Quail's Tale, comes out at the end of every month. The Quail's Tale is a monthly update on everything going on at the club: events, programs, course updates, etc.

Wild Quail

@wildquail

Welcome to the Wild Quail family!

Since 1990, Wild Quail has provided its' members with an enjoyable and recreational golfing and social experience. Our goal is to offer you a comfortable environment where you can relax, socialize, have fun, entertain, and enjoy some of the finest golf, pool, tennis, and social amenities.

The combination of facilities, friends, and staff is second to none and very unique to Delaware. Our eighteen-hole golf course is the perfect blend of subtle challenge and natural beauty. Our social activities, dining, and entertainment offer an inviting environment in our spacious clubhouse.

This brochure will provide you with some helpful information on taking advantage of our facilities and activities.

FAQs

Q: What is the service charge on my food and beverage purchases?

A: 15% for in-house dining purchases and 20% for banquets/special functions. This is not a gratuity. The club uses this revenue to cover the base wages of the wait staff.

Q: May I bring guests?

A: Yes, but you must be with them. Guests must pay by cash or credit card.

Q: How do the food/beverage minimums work?

A: Each member is required to spend a minimum each month on food and beverage at the clubhouse. Your minimum cycle is based on the first letter of your last name.

A through L: Mid-Month Cycle
(ex: March 16-April 15)

L through Z: Calendar Month Cycle
(ex: March 1 - March 15)

Q: How are dues billed?

A: Most dues are billed on a monthly basis for the upcoming month. Dues for junior & dining club memberships are billed once a year.

Golf

The regular season is from April 1st through October 31st. The course may be used all year unless restricted by the Greens Superintendent or Golf Professional.

Soft spikes and collared shirts are required dress on the golf course. Shorts, if worn, must be Bermuda length. Absolutely no jeans allowed. No bicycles, pets, or pedestrians permitted on the course.
